Dear Devin,

I am thrilled to report to you that our beloved young friend, Keane, has finally "graduated"! He is on his way to his new home on a college campus in Iowa! His new owner is a very likeable man, age 40, who is studying computer Science as a career change after losing his eyesight in recent years. He has a terrific sense of humor, but he is seriously thrilled with his new guide! He is so loving and supportive with Keane, who has really "blossomed" in his work (very calm, steady, and responsible with his new owner). You can be so very proud of your pup! I sure am!

Keane was a pleasure for me to work with, and a delight to watch with his new owner in "class". The love and efforts which you gave to Keane have made a wonderful difference in the life of a grateful man, who sometimes refers to his dog as, "The Keaneman".

Sincerely,
Drew Gibbon
